

The weather is beautiful, Jim's driveway is beautiful...it don't get any better than this. Here's to good friends....tonight is kind of special....

Thanks to Keith for the tasty pork chops on Friday night. I'm sure that everyone heard the news, but just in case, we'll be at Red's Place East (the Bickley's) this Friday because Jim and Jodi have a few personal things to take care of. I'm not sure who's signed up for main course, but why don't we all just BYOB and a snack if you can and we'll call it a day. Keep it on the down low. If you don't know where it is, email me and I'll tell you. I don't really want directions up on the website.

QUOTE OF THE NIGHT (I remembered this week!) Paul: "After finals are over, I am definitely going to pull a Brenna!"

Upcoming events -- Garage Sale -- May 7th and 8th. Get your garbage together!

Also, Mother's Day is May 9th! So buy that Mother of yours something special to thank for all of the selfless sacrifices that she makes every single day of her life -- oh wait, I guess I'm not supposed to push my personal agenda here, am I?

Also, a special welcome goes out to David Castle! David (Mr. "You won't remember my email address), newsletter subscription fees are $50 -- cash payable to me. Feel free to bring it on Friday. hee hee. I'll let Brenna or Jim tell you about the membership fees to the Gazebo Degenerates. It's nasty. But membership has its privileges. Or so Jim tells us.
