

What up folks? It's another Monday, and I for one am glad. Only three more Mondays until.... SCHOOOOOOL'S OUT FOR SUMMAH! (I wish you could see me head banging here. It's rockin')

Thanks to all who showed up on Friday, and thanks to everyone who helped Brenna move. It went really quickly, and I know she appreciated it.

Big garage sale weekend this weekend. Friday and Saturday. Even if you're not coming to stay, at least show up to say hello.

I'd like to put out an all points bulletin for Jack and Mindy Walker. Jim, did you do something to upset them? You guys are MIA, and we want you back at Red's!

Lobster Fest is Saturday, May 14th, so if you want a lobster, get your order (AND CHECK) to Jim and Jodi as soon as possible. I'm assuming we'll all be there, but if you want a lobster Jim will have to order it soon. Email or call them for details.

I think that's it! Oh wait, I almost forgot the quote of the night. There was a tie...

Connie: When Vince and I have kids, we're going to have the second one like three months after the first one is born. We're going to just pop 'em out and be done with it.

Carole: I'm so sorry I broke your door!

I love you guys!

Mel
