

Yet another successful garage sale! Between the two locations, we earned over $1600 -- not bad for a bunch of junk! Seriously though, it was a great time, and we all made money to boot. What a combo.

This weekend there will be NO BEER THIRTY! Gasp! Shudder! You will just have to do your drinking in solitude -- until Saturday when it's the LOBSTER FEST 2004! A good time is guaranteed! If you want to order a lobster, talk to Jim TODAY! Otherwise, bring something to grill and a dish to pass. I'm sure we'll have "more food than God", but food is good, especially when you're drinking.

The following week (May 21) we'll be at Lisa's house -- email me or talk to someone on Saturday if you don't know where that is.

Also -- if you haven't paid for Buffett yet -- DO IT! Remind your friends to pay up! There are people who are getting the bill for these tickets and would like to pay it off!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK (it's a tie!!)

Paul (talking to Jim about all of his garage sale stuff) "Jim, just LET IT GO!"

Mel: I'm stone cold PIMPIN'! (although I personally liked pimpalicious myself!)

See you all on Saturday!!!!
